

The Arundel Vocal Arts Society

JoAnn Kulesza, Director

and

The Community Chorus of Peabody

Kristen Toedtman, Director

Present

Music by Kathleen McGuire, Andy Payne & Jonathan Welch

Calvary United Methodist Church & Linthicum Heights United Methodist Church

April 30 & May 1, 2022

JoAnn Kulesza, Conductor

Diane Kinsley, Pianist

Violin I	Jerry Tong	Violin II	Elizabeth Jones
Viola	Jennifer Kim	Cello	Autumn England
Percussion	Robert Rocheteau	Electric Bass	Sam Kohler
Flute	Amanda Dame	Oboe	Andrea Morris
Native American Flute	Carolyn Sonnen	Horn	Jordan Shropshire

For more information on our organizations, please visit www.arundelvocalarts.org and facebook.com/communitychorusofpeabody/

Ubi caritas et amor, Deus ibi est.

Where charity and love are, God is present.

“As part of the human race, we must find compassion for those we never knew who’ve died senselessly on the street, whether they were young or old, in war or in peacetime, in violence or in illness. Through remembering them, we are reminded to value all life. Lest we forget.” – Kathleen McGuire, Andy Payne and Jonathan Welch

Concert Program

Blessing of the Space

How Lovely Is Thy Dwelling Place - Johannes Brahms (from A German Requiem, Op. 45)

Ubi Caritas - Maurice Durufle

Keynote - Causes of Homelessness

A message from the Mayor of Annapolis

Participatory Songs led by Kristen Toedtman

Remembrances (video)

Prayer of the Departed: El Malei Rachamim - Philip Greenfield

Sometimes I Feel Like A Motherless Child - Valerie Mills Cooper, soloist

Poem by Tuesday Quinones

Street Requiem - Kathleen McGuire, Andy Payne and Jonathon Welch, 2014

1. Acknowledgement and Dedication
2. Introit – Requiem Aeternam
3. Ubi Caritas – Charity and Love
4. Kyrie Eleison – City Hymn
5. Dies Irae – Day of Judgment
6. Pie Jesu
7. Agnus Dei – Lamb of God
8. Gloria – Anthem of Empowerment
9. Lacrimosa – Night Tears
10. Lux Aeterna – Remember Them

Closing Benediction

We Shall Be Free by Stephanie Davis and Garth Brooks, 1992

AVAS operations and programming is supported by grants from the

We thank our sponsors for supporting this program, specifically:

- Bella’s Market of Cape St. Claire for sponsoring our readers/narrators/speakers.
- Mary Agnes Wolf for sponsoring our accompanist.
- Chip Davis and Joe Biddle for their individual donations.

We extend sincere appreciation to Calvary United Methodist Church staff and Linthicum Heights United Methodist Church staff for providing our venues.